

PADEREWSKI SELLING CHRISTMAS DOLLS TO AID STARVING IN HIS NATIVE POLAND

The world famous pianist was photographed at the Polish Fete recently held at the Ritz Carlton in New York to raise funds to aid the starving people of his native country.

HOLIDAY CELEBRATION AT STANFORD PARK TONIGHT

Big doin's at Stanford park. The mid-winter concert with the Stanford park senior, junior and children's orchestras playing "to beat the band" will come off tonight in the playground at W. 14th pl., Jefferson and Union sts.

A New Year's festival, with Santa Claus, a tottering old 1915, a brand new 1916 and oodles of pretty dances and music is promised for

Thursday and Friday in the afternoons at 4 p. m. and evenings at 8.

Admission to both events is free and all are invited.

TOM SHEVLIN, FAMOUS YALE ATHLETE, DEAD

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 29.—Thomas Shevlin, millionaire lumberman and famous Yale football star, died of pneumonia contracted while coaching Yale football squad last fall. Unable to shake it off.